Subject: Invitation for conducting Webinar on "From Software Testing to Quality Engineering" on 19th September

Dear Madam,

We are pleased to request you to conduct the webinar for students of Sardar Patel Institute of Technology for an event organized by the ACE, a committee of MIT & Department. The event is happening on 19th September, 2020. It will be a special one for the students of SPIT to attend the webinar on "From Software Testing to Quality Engineering".

We feel fortunate enough to be able to do this come the goal of assigning the task is to bring together bright minds to grow skills that are also focused on people's contributions & knowledge.

We believe your voice would be a great addition to this stage. It will only be an informational talk for students who will inspire them to better concepts. Please accept our invitation. Thank you for attention and we are much look forward to having from you.

Regards,
 ACE committee

Dear Madam

As per our telephonic conversation; your topic for the Guest Lecture for the students of Electronics Engineering is finalized as "Atomic Level Characterization of Micro/Nano Sensing Platforms" and Schedule: 29th Oct 2020 Timing: 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm. So I request you to kindly accept our invitation. I am sure your Lecture would be useful to the students in knowing the advancements in the field of characterizations tools and techniques for semiconductor as well as MEMS/NEMS devices.

I request you to reply to this mail as an acceptance for the same.

Thanks & Regards
